REMARKS

Claims 1 to 89 are pending in the present application. Claims 1 to 89 stand provisionally rejected under the doctrine of non-statutory obviousness-type double patenting in view of Claims 17 to 20 of commonly owned, co-pending Application No. US 20040081546A1 and, additionally, in view of Claims 1, 13, 23, 26, 28, and 30 of commonly owned, co-pending Application No. US 20040062633A1. Applicants respectfully traverse the Examiner's provisional rejections. In addition, Applicants respectfully assert that the Examiner's rejections are improper and should be withdrawn.

Both published Application No. US 20040081546A1 and published Application No. US 20040062633A1 were filed on August 28, 2003, and both claim priority to respective provisional applications filed on August 31, 2002. Applicants' present application was also filed on August 28, 2003 and claims priority to a provisional application filed on August 31, 2002. Thus, the two relied upon published applications are not prior art relative to Applicants' present application. Further, Applicants respectfully note that a terminal disclaimer would serve no purpose since all three applications were filed on the same date and have the same priority date.
